

REMARKS

The Office Action indicated that Claims 1-17 and 24-29 were allowed.

Claims 19 and 20 were indicated allowable if rewritten in independent form.

Accordingly, the new Claim 30 represents the indicated allowed subject matter of Claim 19 and the new Claim 31 represents the indicated allowed subject matter of Claim 20.

Newly drafted Claim 32 corresponds basically to the subject matter set forth in a allowed Claim 25.

The newly drafted Claim 33 basically provides the same subject matter of the allowed Claim 25 in the format of the computer readable medium.

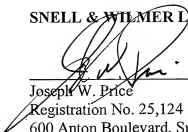

Claims 34 and 35 define the novelty in the commercial information management site while new Claim 36 defines the viewer terminal device of the network.

Applicant wishes to thank the Examiner for the courtesy of setting forth the position in the previously rejected Claims 22 and 23 under 35 U.S.C. §101. It is believed that applicant has now complied with the Examiner's suggestion in defining a computer readable medium.

If there are any questions with regards to this matter, the undersigned attorney can be contacted at the listed phone number.

Very truly yours,

SNELL & WILMER L.L.P.
